

Operative GT Purdy

Nov. 5th, 1926

Re: JIM MILLS, mentioned the name of Mrs. Nonnemacher, and said she helped him with cleaning of St. John's church in his testimony this day.

Mr. Palzer through Miss Anderson requested operative to interview this woman.

Operative made inquiries and learned that Mrs. Nonnemacher is a widow and lives at 19 Throop Ave., New Brunswick. She was not at home when operative called, but he finally located her at her place of employment, The Jersey Blue Tea Room on Bayard St. just across the street from the Court House.

She stated that she could not give any information one way or another, as she was employed to clean the Church by Dr. Hall and paid by him and that she had only been working there a short time before the murders and never came in contact with any of the principals of this case. She does not know anything about Mrs. Mills, Jim Mills or Dr. Hall, except that Jim Mills was sexton of the church at the time she was there. She knew nothing of value.

Respectfully submitted:
